Thanks Carol and Alexis,

We also got this information. At this point, we are coordinating with the Enforcement Division and Superfund Division. If they turn up and specific allegations, we will evaluate the matter for criminal investigation at that point.

Thanks. Hunter's Point is a Superfund NPL site. Over the past two decades, there have been tensions over the clean-up (by Navy) and development (by Lennar) of the site, including particular attention to Yosemite Slough by the State oversight agencies and EPA Region 9. While I leave any criminal inquiry to Jay, I'm copying Enrique, our Superfund Director, for his awareness. Thanks, A
